Anti-Bullying campaign

As part of our "Too Bright to Bully" campaign at the school, we participated in the International "Stand up to Bullying" awareness day on Friday, 23 February. Learners came dressed to school in orange and blue. The orange represented standing up to bullying and the blue represented Bryneven. All learners took part in an activity that highlighted standing up to bullying.

We thank our community for the support of this event. Further events have been planned for the future and the necessary information will be provided closer to the time.
